

CAMP BELIEVE

Social & Emotional Learning Program

Who should apply?

- ❖ DCPS students grades 1st to 5th.
- ❖ Students should not be eligible for extended school year (ESY).
- ❖ Designed to provide ongoing opportunities for success that promote social skills development, enhance self-esteem, improve decision-making skills and peer relationships.
- ❖ Camp program concentrates on providing the students with strategies and techniques to cope and excel in a school or social setting.
- ❖ We are utilizing evidence-based practices and teaching strategies for children struggling with emotional and social challenges through a variety of direct activities.

Supporting Student Achievement Through Related Services

Tuesday, July 5th – July 29th, 2016

8:00 AM – 1:00 PM

Patterson Elementary School

(4399 South Capitol Terrace SW, Washington D.C. 20032)

- Builds emotional competence in children, where youth learn to believe in themselves, because they see others believe in them as well.
- Each class, facilitated by a Social Worker and paraprofessional.
- Teacher student ratio of 10:2.
- Breakfast, lunch, and snacks served daily
- Transportation to the camp is not provided.
- Weekly field trips for learning and exploration relevant to our character building blocks.
- Limited spaces available.
- Camp registration fee is $30 (non-refundable)
- Applications due by Friday, May 1, 2016.

The behavioral committee will review all applicants and will make decisions to determine eligibility and acceptance for camp.

For an application or additional Information, please contact:

Tamara Dukes
202-907-8056

Tamara.dukes@dc.gov

DISTRICT OF COLUMBIA
PUBLIC SCHOOLS

