

#DCPSReads Summer Book Club Series

DC Public Schools is hosting its first-ever, citywide book club! Students, parents, and community members are invited to read the books that interest them and join us for empowering conversations where we will explore common themes within the selected books.

Race, Ethnicity, and Culture

Just Mercy: A Story of Justice and Redemption by Bryan Stevenson

The Hate U Give by Angie Thomas

Last Stop on Market Street by Matt de la Peña

Twitter Chat • June 19 from 4 - 5 p.m. • Follow @DCPSSchancellor and share your questions or thoughts using #DCPSReads
Book club discussion • June 19 from 6 - 7:30 p.m. • Brookland Middle School

Gender Identity and Empowerment

Americanah by Chimamanda Ngozi Adichie

The House on Mango Street by Sandra Cisneros

Be Boy Buzz by bell hooks

Book club discussion • July 18 from 6 - 7:30 p.m. • Leckie Education Campus

Learning and Discovery

Ghost by Jason Reynolds

ish by Peter H. Reynolds

Book club discussion • August 7 from 4 - 5 p.m. • Benning Neighborhood Library

To learn more about the DCPS Summer Book Club, visit dcps.dc.gov/bookclub.

