SECTION C: SPECIFICATIONS/WORK STATEMENT

C.1 SCOPE:

The District of Columbia Public Schools, Office of the Chancellor seeks to bolster instructional planning across the district in response to the content rigor required by the Common Core State Standards. We are seeking a research-based partner to bolster adoption and implementation of weekly planning meetings, during LEAP seminars for all principals and District Instructional Leadership, including content support team members who participate in the Cluster Support Model, all leap leaders (including assistant principals, instructional coaches, and teacher leaders); Instructional Superintendents; Vision and Cohesion work with leadership representation from the Office of Schools and Office of Teaching and Learning to ensure vertical alignment and embedded systems level support during the 2023-2024 school year.

C.1.1 INTRODUCTION

In SY 22-23, DCPS launched a focus on weekly data meetings in partnership with the Relay Graduate School of Education. Weekly Data meetings are a structure by which teachers closely review work their students produce in order to inform their next instructional steps.

This work was targeted to all instructional leaders (principals, assistant principals, instructional coaches, and teacher leaders) and occurred during Summer Leadership Institute (SLI), Leadership Academy, Cluster Meetings, and LEAP Leader professional development.

This work revealed two trends: 1) This PD was well-received and resulted in strengthened school practice, as measured by instructional superintendents and 2) this focused student work analysis revealed gaps in instructional planning across the district.

As a result, the district is adopting a focus on instructional planning for SY 23-24 and seeks a partner to provide aligned professional development and coaching support.

C.1.2 SUMMARY

There are 2 main goals for this work:

- a. In service of equity and student achievement, deliver high quality professional development to develop a shared K-12 vision of excellence in planning routines and implementation.
- b. Build internal, aligned capacity for Instructional Superintendents and other district leadership to provide high quality coaching across the District.

To achieve these goals, DCPS seeks a partner to design and facilitate professional development on weekly planning meetings and monitor implementation.

Each District of Columbia Public Schools Participant shall hold full-time positions within District of Columbia Public Schools that include coaching teachers or leading instructional and cultural practices, such that they are able to meet program fieldwork requirements.

The regional level leader must be an alumnus/alumna of the Leverage Leadership Institute or must currently be enrolled in Relay leadership programming.

C.1.7.6 While Participant transfers are strongly discouraged, District of Columbia Public Schools may encounter a scenario in which a Participant is no longer able to receive coaching and support and may wish to provide support to another, equally qualified Participant. District of Columbia Public Schools May replace a Participant selected for the program with an equally qualified participant at any time during the school year with written notice to Relay.

C.1.7.7 Attendance, Dismissal, & Accountability

Should a participant be unable to attend due to ongoing localized travel restrictions, Relay faculty will provide materials and a virtual experience to ensure the Participant can continue learning.

C.1.7.14 School Leadership Alignment

District of Columbia Public Schools understands and acknowledges the policies outlined in the School Leadership Alignment (Appendix A).

C.1.7.15 Video Recording

Classroom and other in-school videos provide a valuable tool for supporting leader development, and Relay assignments and assessments may require or encourage the use of video. DCPS participants may film within their schools for instructional purposes related to this contract. DCPS will not capture the likeness, voice, or other identifiable aspect of any DCPS student or staff member on any video unless it has obtained proper written consent from the appropriate parent/guardian, adult student, or staff member. Should Relay be granted access to any of these videos for purposes of assisting with DCPS professional development, Relay agrees to only use the videos for such purposes (and for no other purposes including, but not limited to, commercial purposes).

C.1.7.16 In-Person Session Contingency

We recognize that the spread of COVID-19 makes planning for travel unpredictable and that information can change rapidly. Relay is committed to the health and well-being of its participants, faculty, and staff and to supporting school leaders throughout the school year. Relay faculty are prepared to lead all instruction via remote learning in the event we are unable to safely hold in-person sessions due to ongoing restrictions on travel or mass gatherings.
