C.3 DEFINITIONS

N/A

C.4 BACKGROUND

- C.4.1 The District of Columbia Public Schools (DCPS) has students with disabilities that require the services and support of a dedicated one on one aide or nurse pursuant to their Individual Education Plan (IEP). A process has been developed and implemented throughout the District to ensure these services and supports are only provided to students who require them to access the curriculum and make meaningful progress toward identified goals and objectives.

- C.4.2 The School district does employ dedicated aides; however, there is generally a shortfall between the number of dedicated aides employed by the school district and the number of dedicated aides required by students pursuant to their IEPs. The shortfall must therefore be corrected and supported by contractual employees. School Health Services are provided through a Memorandum of Agreement between DCPS and the District of Columbia Health Department, but some students with disabilities require such extensive medical services and supports while in the educational environment that DCPS has elected to contract for those services.
- C.4.3 The provisions of the No Child Left Behind Act 2022, outline the requisite credentials of paraprofessionals serving in Title I schools. Since most public schools in the District are Title I Schools, contracted dedicated aides must meet the requisite credentials for Highly Qualified Paraprofessional outlined in the Act. Specifically, all contracted instructional and behavioral aides must demonstrate credits commensurate with at least two years participation in an institution of higher learning, an associate degree, or successful completion of a formal paraprofessional examination.
- C.4.4 The provision of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act of 2004 (IDEA). Describe school health services as a related service to students with disabilities who would be unable to attend a day of school without supportive health care provided by a qualified school nurse or a specifically trained non-medical person who is supervised by a qualified nurse. All contracted medical paraprofessionals must demonstrate credential commensurate with these provisions of the IDEA.
- C.4.5 As a result of the D.C. Law 3-77, District of Columbia Workers' Compensation Act of 1979 (as amended), and the District's Mayor authorized the D.C. Department of Employment Services' Office of Workers' Compensation to administer the workers' compensation program since 1982. As time has passed, OWC has outgrown the old CORE document repository system, which was built in 2004. Moreover, Washington, D.C.'s growth of employers and employees has increased in large numbers, which also affects the need to protect more workers who sustain work-related injuries and occupational diseases. OWC also has other units such as compliance, insurance, and a special fund that works in tandem with the claims processing unit. Thus, OWC needs a system that is expandable and can handle its continuous growing requirements.

 - (6) If a contractor is unable to support any part of its claim and it is determined that the inability is attributable to a material misrepresentation of fact or fraud on the part of the Contractor, the Contractor shall be liable to the District for an amount equal to the unsupported part of the claim in addition to all costs to the District attributable to the cost of reviewing that part of the Contractor's claim. Liability under this paragraph (a)(6) shall be determined within six (6) years of the commission of the misrepresentation of fact or fraud.

 - (c) Decisions of the CO shall be final and not subject to review unless the Contractor timely commences an administrative appeal for review of the decision, by filing a complaint with the Contract Appeals Board, as authorized by D.C. Official Code § 2-360.04.

Any claim for adjustment for a change within the general scope must be asserted within ten (10) days from the date the change is ordered; provided, however, that the CO, if he or she determines that the facts justify such action, may receive, consider, and adjust any such claim asserted at any time prior to the date of final settlement of the contract. If the parties fail to agree upon the adjustment to be made, the dispute shall be determined as provided in clause 14 Disputes.

- (b) The District shall not require the Contractor, and the Contractor shall not require a subcontractor, to undertake any work that is beyond the original scope of the contract or subcontract, including work under a District-issued change order, when the additional work increases the contract price beyond the not-to-exceed price or negotiated maximum price of this contract, unless the CO:
 - (1) Agrees with Contractor, and if applicable, the subcontractor on a price for the additional work;

 - (3) Notify the subcontractor and CO in writing of the reason the Contractor withholds any payment from a subcontractor for the additional work.

 - (8) The Contractor shall include in every subcontract the equal opportunity clauses, i.e., paragraphs 19(b)(1) through (b)(9) of this clause, so that such provisions shall be binding upon each subcontractor.
 - (9) The Contractor shall take such action with respect to any subcontract as the CO may direct as a means of enforcing these provisions, including sanctions for noncompliance; provided, however, that in the event the Contractor becomes involved in, or is threatened with, litigation with a subcontractor or vendor as a result of such direction by the contracting agency, the Contractor may request the District to enter into such litigation to protect the interest of the District.
