2019 - 2020
SCHOOL YEAR CALENDAR

Dear DCPS Community,

I spent my first 100 days as Chancellor of DC Public Schools (DCPS) engaging with communities across all eight wards. During school visits, community forums, neighborhood tours, and “Ferebee Friday” meet-ups, I met students, educators, families, and advocates who are committed to celebrating our successes and exploring our opportunities. One of the things I was most excited by in these interactions was the rich diversity of our school communities and our District as a whole.

DCPS values the unique backgrounds and experiences of our students, families, educators, and staff. That’s why I’m thrilled that the theme for the School Year 2019-2020 calendar is “DCPS Unity.” With a focus on unity, we are celebrating the many ways our diversity makes us a stronger and more inclusive school district so that we can prepare every student for success in college, career, and life.

As Chancellor, I consider myself chief champion for DCPS, and I am committed to partnering with you to ensure that there is a high-quality school at every grade level in every neighborhood. In School Year 2019-2020, we are expanding early childhood learning opportunities through the development of Ketcham’s Early Childhood Center (Ward 8), exploring bold school models like Bard Early College High School (Ward 7), and opening beautiful modernized facilities like Ida B. Wells Middle School (Ward 4). We will continue to work together to provide critical resources for our students and families, including supports for homeless students, restorative justice practices, and programming for our young men and women of color.

Thank you for partnering with DCPS to provide all students with an excellent education. It will take all of us – students, families, educators, staff, partners, and communities – to enter our next phase of excellence. I look forward to working with you this school year to ensure that every student feels loved, challenged, and prepared to take advantage of the growth and opportunity in our thriving city.

In partnership,

Lewis D. Ferebee
Chancellor
