

Summer School Afternoon Program at Turner ES

A partner organization will offer afternoon programming at Turner ES this summer, from 1:00 to 5:30 pm. The program is free of charge and will provide enrichment for students participating in summer school.

Students have to be enrolled in summer school before enrolling in this afternoon program.

- National Center for Children and Families (NCCF): The theme for the summer is “Inspiring ways to use social media by staying safe online”. The summer program will employ a unique combination of enrichment, education and excitement. As a part of the program, the students will be taught to investigate the positive and negative use of social media and the ability to use their social media acuity to create useful apps and programs i.e. Facebook, Twitter, Instagram. Also, the students will participate in an end of summer camp performance through music, dance, and visual arts that will be presented to family, friends, and the community.
- NCCF will serve a maximum of 200 students in grades K-7.

Dates: June 29 to July 31, 2015

Time: 1:00-5:30 pm (Following the DCPS Summer School Program)

Registration is on a first-come-first-served basis.
Parents should enroll their children directly with the organization:
